

Aymeric Serre

Aymeric Serre is an associate in the Lausanne office of Bonnard Lawson. He works with Me. Yves Bonnard and Me. Stéphane Lagonico in the Private Clients Group. His main practice areas are French tax law (counselling and litigation) as well as international tax law (cross-border tax relations, tax regularizations). Aymeric Serre is also active in the fields of asset engineering, estate planning and executive taxation.

Education

Professional Lawyer's Certification (CAPA), Paris, France, 2015
Bar Training School (EFB), Paris, France, 2014-2015
Master 2 (Tax Law), University of Paris V René Descartes, 2014-2015
Master 1 (Business Law), University of Paris II Panthéon-Assas, 2012-2013

Bar

Admitted to the Bar in Paris and in Lausanne

Languages

French (mother tongue) English (fluent)

Professional experience

Associate with Bonnard Lawson, Lausanne, since January 2016
Associate with DILLENSCHNEIDER FAVARO & ASSOCIES – tax department, Paris, 2015
Trainee with DILLENSCHNEIDER FAVARO & ASSOCIES – tax department, Paris, 2015