

Open Position

LAWYER – International Arbitration and Sports Law - Geneva

We are currently looking for a highly committed mid-level to senior associate to join our Arbitration and Sports department at Bonnard Lawson's office in Geneva.

What we look for:

- Attorney-at-law registered as Swiss lawyer.
- Excellent academic credentials (bachelor and MLaw in a Swiss University), with post-graduate diploma (LL.M.) and/or experience abroad.
- Experience in commercial and/or sports arbitration.
- High proficiency in English and French, with good knowledge of German. Additional language skills: very much appreciated.
- Excellent drafting skills and legal knowledge.
- Working independently, passionate about arbitration and thinking out of the box.

What we offer:

- Swiss law firm with international exposure (offices in Dubai, Shanghai, Hong Kong, and Paris).
- Stimulating position in a dynamic, multicultural, and friendly working environment, working on vast variety of cases (counsel in commercial and sports arbitration; arbitrator in commercial arbitrations; enforcement of arbitral awards before Swiss courts).
- Development opportunities.
- Flexibility in the organisation of your work.
- Attractive conditions.

Please send your application, with all required documents (letter of application, curriculum vitae, grades, degree and working certificates) to the attention of Ms Gabriela Zwicky, by email only: gzp@bonnard-lawson.com. Your application will be held strictly confidential.
